RUTH
(Ruth 1-4)

The bible says that Naomi lived in Bethlehem in Judah with her husband and their two sons. There was a famine in the land, so Naomi and her husband decided to go to Moab. While they were in Moab, Naomi's husband died. Naomi's sons married Moabite women named Orpah and Ruth.

They lived in Moab for 10 years, and then Naomi's sons died.

The famine was over, so Naomi decided to go home, back to the Promised Land.

Orpah went back home to Moab. But Ruth hugged Naomi. "Wherever you go, I will go, and wherever you live, I will live; your people will be my people, and your God will be my God," Ruth said. So, Naomi and Ruth went to Bethlehem together.

Naomi told Ruth to go into the fields and gather fallen grain. She happened to go to the field of Boaz, a good man. Boaz was from the family of Naomi's late husband.
Boaz told Ruth to keep coming to his field where she would be safe. Boaz made sure Ruth had enough food. There was food for both Ruth and Naomi.

Ruth told Naomi about Boaz. "Boaz is one of our family redeemers," Naomi replied. A family redeemer was someone who would help his close relatives if they were in trouble. Naomi knew Boaz would take care of Ruth, so she encouraged Ruth to stay in his fields.

Boaz promised to redeem Ruth. That means he would buy back the land that Naomi sold after her husband died. And he would marry Ruth.

Boaz did buy the land. He married Ruth. Ruth and Boaz had a son named Obed.

Boaz was a family redeemer. He helped his relatives. Boaz cared for Ruth and Naomi because their husbands had died. In a similar way, Jesus is our Redeemer. He helped us when He died on the cross.
